

ANXIOUS TO MOVE.

WOLSELEY'S MEN READY FOR THE MARCH TO CAIRO.

The Troops suffering from Diarrhoea and Dysentery—A Quelling Party in a Tight Place—Years of Disturbance in Cairo—The British Position at Kassassin, Etc. Etc.

LONDON, September 14.—General Wolseley telegraphs from Ismailia that the troops are in high spirits and eager to be led forward. Supplies in the front are ample. A dispatch from Alexandria to the Observer reports that the English soldiers at Meks are suffering from diarrhoea and dysentery caused by the bad water in the forts. The Bedouins continue entrenching their positions on the Aboukir side of Alexandria in close proximity to the British outposts. The khedive has given the British permission to cut the dyes at Meks, thus inundating the Mariani lake and preventing an attack by the enemy from that side. Advice from Cairo says that great anxiety is felt there lest the project of police be unable to maintain order. Despite his unceasing efforts the populace continue to menace the few remaining Europeans and threaten wholesale plunder. It is stated that General Wolseley has telegraphed to the authorities that it is unnecessary to prepare a third army corps, as he only requires a few reinforcements to fill up a gap. To-day two Europeans went out on a boating excursion and landed at Port Dakkeh, west of Meks. Three shells were fired at them, and one excursionist and one of the crew were wounded. The officers of the British man-of-war Blithen observed the incident and sent a boat to rescue the party. The Arab cavalry picked up the bodies of the British outposts. General Sir Evelyn Wood and staff inspected the enemy's camp on Sunday evening from the top of Count Zaimia's house. One Indian seven-pound mountain battery has arrived here. Stores are being fast brought up. The engineers are busy entrenching a camp of defense. A forward movement is daily expected. The Daily News Ismailia dispatch says: The difficulties which newspaper correspondents here have to contend with are greater than in any previous campaigns. They must either carry their own dispatches or organize a service of galloping couriers. The latter plan is difficult of execution, as the Arabs are afraid to go forward, even with Europeans. The press messages, after passing a revision at Ismailia, again undergo censorship at Port Said. A dispatch from Kassassin to the Daily News will testify that the British position there is so formidable that it is hoped Arabi Pasha may test his strength against it. A dispatch to Reuters' telegraph company from Alexandria says: Great uneasiness is felt in consequence of the arrest of a native spy carrying a letter addressed to Antonio Paulo, the Greek consular agent. Paulo has been arrested. It is rumored that the police have discovered ramifications of a conspiracy in which several Greeks are implicated, the object being a massacre of Europeans at Alexandria in the event of the British troops being seriously engaged at Ramleh.

THE TIMES (CONTINUED). The Times this morning says: Though General Wolseley does not require a third division, the government is determined to strengthen his hands by sending three regiments of infantry. The latter General Wood may be set free without leaving a garrison of less than 5,000 men at Alexandria. Reserve depots of 150 men for each of the regiments which are at the front with General Wolseley will also be formed at Alexandria, and a large depot of a thousand reserve men will be formed to replace as they are drafted to the front to supply casualties. The general result of these measures is that the general result of Wolseley will have 22,000 men on the main line of operation besides the garrison of Alexandria and the Indian contingent.

ARABI'S REINFORCED CONFIDENCE. A dispatch from Kassassin says that Arabi has regained confidence. It will be necessary to advance scientifically and in force. The English infantry fire in the last engagement seems to have done slight damage. The Martini Henri rifles used by the British are apt to be rendered unserviceable by hard usage. The khedive has issued a decree forbidding the importation of petroleum into Egypt.

UNEASINESS AT ALEXANDRIA. Reuters' telegraph company has the following: Alexandria, September 4.—Uneasiness among the Europeans continues unabated. Sensational rumors of every kind are in circulation. To-night there was a report that the French consular general had asked for authority to remove the French subjects, but it proved to be groundless. The British military authorities have mapped the town into districts, which are connected by telephone, and they feel satisfied that this will enable them to quell any unforeseen outbreak. At 5 o'clock this evening the English heavy guns near the Cairo railway began shelling Arabi Pasha's camp. The enemy replied, their shells falling within ten yards of the Fleming depot in the Ramleh lines. Two more British guns joined in the fire, whereupon a lively cannonade ensued. The enemy continued to make excellent practice, all their shells falling close to the British camp. The water in the canal broke through the dam to-day and is one and a half metres high.

THE SITUATION IN CAIRO. A Greek, who recently arrived here from Cairo, gives a gloomy account of the situation there. He fears that when Arabi Pasha is defeated, he will destroy the city. He estimates that there are in Cairo on 1,500 troops, and he will join in pillaging the city at the first opportunity. He says that the Circassians are maltreated if seen on the streets in Cairo.

THE DUBLIN POLICE.

Efforts of the Hibernian Men for Reinstatement—Disorderly Conduct of the Mob.

DUBLIN, September 4.—Lord Spencer, in addressing the special constables on Saturday expressed deep regret that the men who had been the pride of Dublin should have adopted a course which must be called insubordination and disobedience of the most marked kind. It would be impossible, he said, for the government to treat such acts otherwise than it had done. He appealed to all the loyal men, of all creeds, to come forward to the support of law and order.

A dispatch to the Observer, dated Dublin, Sunday afternoon, says: The police strike is virtually ended. The superintendent, in an interview with the Observer, advised them to draw up a memorial asking that they be reinstated and acknowledging that they committed a breach of discipline. This memorial will be submitted to the authorities this evening, and there is little doubt that the men will then be reinstated with the understanding that their grievances will be investigated. Several slight robberies were committed Saturday evening. The wounds of several parties injured in the street melee were dressed at a hospital, but no injuries of a serious nature are reported. About 140 persons, who were wounded in the street fights here, are in the hospital. Five hundred special constables were sworn in Sunday. The mob attempted to lynch the constable, and handled him so roughly that he is not expected to recover. All night the mob became violent and was charged by the troops. Several persons were wounded. The government officers are in charge of the troops. In George street Sunday day night a train car in which special constables had taken refuge was wrecked by the mob. The gunboat Forester has arrived at Kingsdown, where she is to be disarmed. The authorities will advertise to-morrow for recruits. This action is believed to indicate that the dismissed policemen will not be reinstated. At 11 o'clock at night the streets were much quieter.

CONSIDERING THE CLAIMS OF THE POLICE. Special Dispatch to The Constitution.

DUBLIN, September 4.—The official committee appointed to consider the claims of the police met for the first time to-day. Two special constables have been sentenced, one to six months and the other to three months imprisonment for assaulting the military. It is stated that the special constables and the police, and that the dismissed constables have incited the mob to attack them. At a meeting of the corporation Lord Mayor Dawson said the special constables were simply targets and the cause of disturbance. A woman has died of injuries received in the charge made by the military on Saturday. One of the soldiers has been arrested. At a meeting of the war council Lord Mayor Dawson stated that he had abstained from enrolling special constables as requested by Earl Spencer, lord lieutenant, because he did not think that it was desirable to accept the services of strangers. He had since offered Earl Spencer the services of the tradesmen of the various localities, but had received a reply that the authorities themselves had obtained a sufficient number of special constables. He stated that the special constables were not to be used at night. The military are not to be allowed a good rest to-day. They apparently desire to discharge their duties faithfully. The special constables have ceased wearing badges in order not to attract marked attention. A proclamation has been issued by the lord mayor thanking the citizens for their hearty response to his appeal for aid, and for the special constables, and giving notice that there is no necessity for the appointment of any more constables.

A GREAT STRIKE ENDED.

The Virtual Close of the Labor and Capital Conflict at Pittsburgh.

PITTSBURGH, Penn., September 4.—President Jarrett, of the Amalgamated association, returned from his eastern trip this morning, and during the day, lost no time in taking steps to get the association out of the present strike before it is too late to save the organization. His movements were greatly accelerated by a committee of publishers appointed at a secret meeting held at Schiller hall yesterday afternoon. This committee demanded that a conference with the manufacturers be held immediately in order to end the strike. After this word was received, messengers were dispatched to various parts of the city, and this afternoon all the leading spirits of the association assembled at headquarters. Several hours were spent in close consultation. When the doors were opened the only thing that could be learned was that a consultation had been held, and that nothing definite had been decided upon. President Jarrett stated, however, that he would in all probability call a general delegate meeting on Monday.

From another source it was learned that a general meeting of finishers had also been held this afternoon. Several hours were spent in discussing the strike, after which the meeting adjourned until next Tuesday, when delegates from Wheeling and Youngstown will be present. Unless a meeting has been called from headquarters by that time the finishers will sever their connection with the association and go to work. There is no longer any doubt that next week will witness the ending of the great strike. Among the public generally the conviction is fastened with joy. Manufacturers are pleased also, but the three months' war has engendered a great deal of bitterness, and not a few manufacturers are disposed to demand that a less rate of wages than prevailed last year be accepted by the workmen before work is resumed; also that the mill committee be withdrawn.

Wilson & Walker say they will sign the old scale, but will not recognize a mill committee. Mr. James I. Bennett, whose firm owns four mills, subscribes to the same sentiment. A member of the firm of A. M. Byers & Co. said: "Two months ago the old scale would have been accepted by the manufacturers without a word; but I cannot say it would be now. Among the manufacturers there has been proposed on several occasions to insist upon a 15 per cent. rate for pudding; but they thought it best to let matters remain quiet while trade was so slack."

The rank and file of the strikers are well acquainted with the feeling that prevails among their employers. Said one of these to-day: "This strike will virtually wind up the Amalgamated association, for within the next year or two that organization will be dropped, and the mills will all combine as knights of labor. We are defeated now, although it may take the men another week or two to acknowledge the fact; and the cause of our failure was the want of money to carry on the struggle. I have been idle three months, and in all that time I have received but $6, and I know that I have fared about as well as the majority of the strikers. Those men at the Etina mill will all go in at the old wages, because it is nonsense to ask them to come out when they had not been in the association long enough to receive any relief in case of a strike. That lodge will resume work, throw up the Amalgamated association, and go as an assembly into the Knights of Labor. The fact of their going back on the association will never hurt them as Knights of Labor, because that organization has never indorsed the strike."

In view of the certainty that the strike will end within a week, it is not likely that work will be resumed in any more mills with non-union men, unless it is in those owned by manufacturers who entertain the sentiments quoted above.

PROMINENT PERSONAGES.

Deleseppe on the Expulsion—The Archbishop of Canterbury—The Prize Shooters.

BOSTON, September 4.—A cable dispatch to the Herald, from Paris, contains an interview with M. Deleseppe, who has just arrived there, concerning affairs in Egypt. He says the Egyptian movement is a national one, and Arabi Pasha has the whole people at his back. His force at present is between 25,000 and 30,000. He can get more when he needs them. He has arms for 200,000. M. Deleseppe defended the Egyptians from the charge of mutilating the dead, and said that English soldiers themselves had behaved badly. He thought the war would be long one and that its result could not yet be predicted.

From Paris it is stated that M. Dechard, editor of the Petit Caporal, and M. Demassas, editor of the Canard, fought a duel to-day with swords. M. Demassas was killed.

Among the passengers on the steamer Parthia, which sailed from Liverpool yesterday for New York, are Mr. A. M. Sullivan, late member of parliament and family. Mr. Sullivan is going to New Orleans to recruit his health, but intends to stop at the large cities en route, at the request of Mr. Parnell, and deliver lectures on the condition of Ireland. The steamer Alaska, which arrived to-day at New York, had on board the British team of riflemen, who are to compete with our National guardsmen at Creedmoor on the 14th and 15th of this month. The steamer was met at the lower quarantine by the steamer Hopkins, bearing General Malineux, ex-Judge Stanton, Colonel John B. Odine and nearly all the members of the American rifle association, a number of invited guests and a large detail of newspaper men.

STATE NEWS.

WHAT THE PEOPLE OF GEORGIA ARE DOING AND SAYING.

Athens Edition—Fence in Elberton—High School Opening—Griffin's First Sale—How Stephens is Resolved in the State—Fire in Rockmart—Gainesville's College, Etc.

Special Correspondence of The Constitution.

MOBILE, September 4.—Our superior court has been in session last week and this, and we regret that we will not have our efficient and, as we consider, just Judge Irwin with us any more. He has given entire satisfaction to our people. No cases of very great importance have been tried, the killing of T. Sims by John R. Smith and Monroe Adams being postponed until February term, 1883. Everything has passed off quietly, and the grand jury say they have had less business before them than they or any other body of grand jurors have had in this county since the war. Only one accident occurred during court, Mr. Charles Darby, a very clever young man, who lives about five miles from here, was running his horse on his way home, and was thrown violently from his horse on his head and was thought to be killed, but after lying in a comatose state for about sixty hours he has become a little rational and his physician, Dr. Hardman, thinks there is a chance for his recovery. Politics are booming in our county, and, although General Darrell has been down here and made us a speech and given us (and his republican friends) his platform and his views of the situation, but the Stephens boom is still booming, he is good for 400 majority in the county. We have certain, and perhaps three independent candidates for the legislature, and a convention will be held here Tuesday, the 5th instant, to nominate more by the organized.

The grain crops of our county are as good as the land will produce, and the cotton crop very promising, and we hope and look for better times. Our county paper, the News and Vidette, has changed hands again, Mr. John M. Brown having sold his interest in the same to B. S. Walker, formerly editor and proprietor of the Walton News.

ATHENS.

The Exodus of Summer Visitors—The Georgia Extension, and Other News.

Special Correspondence of The Constitution.

ATHENS, September 3.—Nearly all the summer resorters have returned to the city, and Milledge avenue is crowded in the afternoon by the usual number of high steppers and nobly turkeys. The Knight system, according to rumor, has received so many severe shocks during the summer that until the breaches are healed matters are likely to be quiet in that line, and Germans infrequent, not to say scarce. Several ladies and gentlemen from here will be in attendance on the chi phi festivities in Atlanta. The telephone, besides being a great convenience, is a source of much pleasure and a material aid in the dissemination of news. Madison court is in session this week, and Messrs. M. P. Thurmond, Lamar Cobb, E. T. Brown and Sylvanus Morris are in attendance. The injunction case of Speer vs. the Banner-Watchman was not heard yesterday, owing to the absence of Judge Erwin at Gwinnett court. A hearing will be had in Gwinnett this week. The opinion seems to be gaining that Candler's strength is on the increase in this part of the district. We have only one candidate for the legislature from this county, Mr. B. B. Russell. The extension of the Georgia railroad over into the town has given employment to a great many negroes, and to several doctors, the frequent accidents having caused several injuries to careless workmen. The matrimonial crop this fall, though not equal to last season, will not be inconsiderable.

STEPHENS'S SPEECH.

How the Old Commoner's Arguments are Received Throughout the State.

Special Correspondence of The Constitution.

ATLANTA, September 3.—Mr. Stephens's speech gives universal satisfaction. He will carry Putnam county by a large majority. MAURER, September 2.—The Democrats of Cobb are delighted with Mr. Stephens's speech. It is the key-note, and organized to the core. THOMASTON, September 3.—Upon will respond to Mr. Stephens's speech by a rousing majority for the nominee of the democratic party, and "don't you forget it." MILLEDGEVILLE, September 3.—We are all solid for Mr. Stephens since reading his grand speech in the Convention of yesterday. CONSTITUTION, September 2.—Mr. Stephens's speech has the true ring to it. Many of our citizens who followed him in 1880 will help to swell his majority. FAYETTEVILLE, September 3.—Fayette county has always been a strong Stephens' county, and it is stronger now since his speech. BARNESVILLE, September 3.—Mr. Stephens's speech has made the soreheads all sick here. It was a rattler. LAWRENCEVILLE, September 3.—Mr. Stephens's speech was read with great interest by our people and all the democrats are well pleased with it. Gwinnett county will vote almost solid for Governor.

MADISON.

Morgan County Independent—An Old Soldier's Widow's Death.

Special Correspondence of The Constitution.

MADISON, September 2.—Fifty or sixty of the citizens of Morgan have petitioned John R. Hudson, of Putnam, to run as an independent for senate from this district against Judge Calvin George, the nominee of the district convention which met at Shady Dale on the 19th ult. They, however, some of them, first petitioned Hon. Eben Jordan, of Jasper, to run independent, but he refused. Mr. Hudson, however, has consented to run. Mrs. Everett Atkinson, nee Miss Curroll, of Covington, died at her home in this city last Wednesday evening, greatly to the grief of all who knew her. Mrs. Isaac Early, aged 76, died at her home in this county last Thursday—the relief of an old soldier of 1812. Mr. Robert Chaffer, whose life has been suspended as if by a thread for two or three weeks with malignant fever, is now happily out of danger.

THOMASTON.

A Tough Story About Snakes' Joints—Changes in the Legislature.

Special Correspondence of The Constitution.

THOMASTON, September 4.—Sometime ago a five foot rattlesnake was killed in this county. Last Saturday the bones of this snake were brought to town and were strung on a string. There were two hundred and thirty-seven joints, each of which are separated and no flesh on them. But the moment one of these joints is touched they all join until the whole length of the snake is made up and then each one wriggles like a snake. Last Friday Mr. J. T. Chambers, the hardware merchant of this place, sold his stock of hardware to parties in Barnesville, who will conduct the business hereafter. The dry goods and grocery firm of D. W. Wimble & Son has been dissolved. The business will be carried on in the future by Mr. M. D. Wimble at their same stand, corner Church and Main streets.

DAWSON.

Special Correspondence of The Constitution.

DAWSON, September 2.—Frequent rains in this section continue to damage the cotton crop, causing it to rust and die, and the bolls to open prematurely. The bulk of the crop will be marketed by 1st of October. Already nearly 800 bales of the new crop have been sold here this season, a thing unprecedented for the time of year in the history of this section. Mr. Olin Wimberly, son of Judge Wimberly of Lumpkin, arrived here to-day preparatory to entering upon his duties as the newly elected professor of mathematics in our college here. Primary elections were held throughout this county to-day for delegates to meet in convention here next Tuesday for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the representation.

LAWRENCEVILLE HIGH SCHOOL.

Special Correspondence of The Constitution.

LAWRENCEVILLE, September 4.—The exhibition of the Lawrenceville high school took place on last Friday evening. The exhibition and reading by the boys are very good, and reflected much credit on the school. Professor R. E. Mize, Charles H. Brand was orator for the occasion. Dr. Alexander McBean de prizes. Emory Speer speaks here d week. He has lost strength in 4 and old Gwinnett will most like her lost honor this fall, by repudiating this infamous alliance with alicanism.

CENTREVILLE CROP.

Special Correspondence of The Constitution.

CENTREVILLE, September 4.—The crop continues very fine, though are apprehensive of the visitation and army worm. There appear 10th of last month a worm resembling caterpillar, but they have not cotton yet; they confine themselves to bottom fodder, and in some cases the stubble fields. Mr. reports the boll worm in his cotton they are doing material damage. Chants are expecting a fair business and winter. The public roads are reworked by order of the grand jury.

FENCE IN ELBERTON.

Special Correspondence of The Constitution.

ELBERTON, September 2.—The section of country are strongly Hon. George T. Barnes, of Richmond Hill's successor in the United States. The fence question is being agitated in county now. Election only be held in two or three districts. One district in the county has already the stock law and its advocates are strong efforts to get it adopted in the districts.

LEESBURG SNAKES.

Special Correspondence of The Constitution.

LEESBURG, September 2.—Two measuring respectively 9 and 10 circumference were found in a lot and brought here day before yesterday. Mr. Alick Forester's place. One dies. Two smaller snakes were and killed, but not brought to snakes, from the noise, seemed to so the negro says—playing a lively

GRIFFIN'S FIRST SALE.

Special Dispatch to The Constitution.

GRIFFIN, September 4.—Griffin of new cotton was brought in by John Knight, of Jenkinsville. Weight four hundred and pounds; class Liverpool middling and sold by W. T. Cole, warren sixteen cents per pound, and D. W. Patterson, broker.

BROWN'S IR

The Central Railroad and Banking Company.
From the Columbus, Ga., Enquirer.
On Wednesday, 6th inst., a most important meeting of the directors of this corporation will be held and decisions affecting the large interests controlled by them will be determined.

These decisions will affect not only the private bond and stockholders, but the commercial interest of every city and hamlet in Georgia penetrated by the rails of its extended line.

The death of Colonel W. M. Wadley, the late president, has left a gap, not in the management, direction and control of the road and its dependencies, for these are in the hands of able and skillful men chosen and elected by him, who was a judge of men, and placed by him in the most judicious manner to their capacity, but it is the policy which governed and directed this vast machinery. That policy which has in seventeen years brought the Central railroad, with its 102 miles from Savannah to Macon, an almost hopeless wreck, caused by Sherman's march to the sea, to its present magnificent proportions, controlling over one thousand miles of railway and its fleet of ocean steamships, which has brought Georgia's seaports to a comparatively insignificant to now the second cotton port in the United States; second only to New Orleans, and this policy was eminently a conservative one. Bold always, but never rash, weighing well the consequences and determining the result, to decide was to act. When the crisis which carried so many down came, he was prepared and for years he stood like a rock in opposition to the declarations of dividends not made, and when the time was reached, his conservatism was such that the declaration of a dividend was a year in advance of his wishes.

But this conservatism enabled him, step by step, to add to the property of the company, and at last, when that value was positively determined, to distribute to the stockholders and to the stockholders of the leased lines a stock dividend which fully compensated for the deprivation of dividends. It was this conservatism, which caused him to oppose the capitalizing of the Ocean Steamship company and distribution of more stock, because he felt that there was an uncertainty with the vessel, and more conversant with the dangers of the sea, and it would not do to saddle his company with any such risks.

The question comes up, shall this conservatism continue, and who shall decide this matter. The stockholders, most assuredly, are the proper parties who should determine this matter. At the last election their voice was heard, and by the election of Colonel Wadley this conservatism was approved. Nothing then can be gained by haste, and the true policy would be to defer the selection of a successor until the next annual meeting, when the stockholders can be heard.

The leave of absence granted to President Wadley would not expire until a short time before then, and there is no doubt that had he lived and needed it such leave would have been extended.

Every department of the affairs of the company moves without friction, and he who directs and controls is one trained by Colonel Wadley, qualified in every respect for the high position he holds, and more conversant by reason of relationship, as well as official connection, with Colonel Wadley's plans for the future than any living man.

We have said that every city and hamlet penetrated by the rails of this company is interested in this matter. It is acknowledged by all that in the building up of Georgia's great highway, Colonel Wadley has done as much, if not more, than any other man to advance the material interests of the state. The same line of policy will continue to benefit and enlarge our state. An opposite policy will have an opposite effect.

Don Cameron is very fond of Senator Vest's "good stories."

"Poor Little Fellow."

Whether the children have done wrong or not in stealing green fruit, we cannot help pitying them when they wake up in the night with grievous colic and direful cramps. The agony depicted on a suffering child's face is a sad picture. It would be surprising, if it could not be remedied. But happily there is a convenient remedy in Perry Davis' Pain Killer, which everybody can use. City Marshal D. S. Brigham, of Lowell, Mass., says from long experience that he deems it the duty of every parent to keep Pain Killer in the house, and never be a night without it.

Maline's Motto.

The motto of the state of Maine, "Dirigo—I lead," is applicable to H. A. Fuller. It can truly say "I lead" in point of worth, merit and success, and it is rapidly ascending the lead in sales. In all cases of kidney or liver troubles, in all sorts of complaints, it is simply invaluable and unapproachable. Physicians have discovered this, and freely prescribe it, and hundreds who have been relieved of dangerous affections of the stomach, kidneys and liver by this great medicine, can testify to its merits. H. A. Fuller can truly say, "I have cured many cases of disease, into vigor and health." It is par excellence the Dirigo medicine.

To be beautiful, buoyant and healthy, the whole female constitution must maintain regular action during a certain period of life. Otherwise, no female can possibly remain healthy, and she who does not know this fact, is quite unfortunate. Should she by exposure, become irregular and suffer with many troubles, experience advises the use of English Female Bitters as the most wonderful female regulator and iron tonic in use.

What It Did For an Old Lady.

CORONADO STATION, N. Y., December 28, 1878.
Bitter s—a number of people had been using your Bitters here, and with marked effect. In one case, a lady of over seventy years had been sick for years, and for the past ten years has not been able to get around half the time. About six months ago she got so feeble she was helpless. Her old remedies, or physicians, being of no avail, I sent to Depot, forty-five miles, and got a bottle of Hop Bitters. It improved her so she was able to dress herself and walk about the house. When she had taken the second bottle she was able to take care of her own room and walk out to her neighbor's, and has improved all the time since. My wife and children also have derived great benefit from their use.

H. A. FULLER & SON,
WHOLESALE
GROCERS,

Notwithstanding our very heavy trade during the past two weeks, we still have left from our large and cheap purchases

150 BAGS COFFEE,
200 BBLs. SUGAR,
100 BBLs. PURE SUGAR SYRUPS.

Which we are selling very low. These goods were bought since the declines in the New York Market and with all the advantages CASH could afford.

Our sugars are unadulterated pure and unadulterated, and we are selling choice our "Yellows" for less than adulterated goods are bringing here.

Our line of COFFEE is complete AND WE ARE OFFERING

SPECIAL BARGAINS IN EVERY GRADE.

AS WE WERE PARTICULARLY FORTUNATE IN OUR COFFEE PURCHASES WHILE IN NEW YORK.

FOR CHOICE SUGAR SYRUPS

WE ARE HEADQUARTERS

AND DEFY COMPETITION BOTH AS TO PRICES AND QUALITY.

The above goods, including Flour are specialties with us, but we are prepared to make BOTTOM prices on anything in our line.

Very respectfully,
H. A. FULLER & SON.

SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR.

HOW TO TELL
Genuine Simmons' Liver Regulator, or Medicine.

Look for clean, neat white wrapper with the red symbol letter stamped upon it in the form of a ribbon gracefully curved into the letter S, embracing the emblem of our trade, Spauld's Mortar and Grindstone.

Look for the words A. Q. SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR, or MEDICINE, also observe the signature of J. H. ZEILIN & CO. in red ink on the side.

Beware of those who know nothing of Medical Compounds who put out nostrums known to sour, and being analyzed prove worthless and only made to deceive the public, and to place on the well-earned reputation of Zeilins & Co's medicine. These frauds have no reputation to sustain and will cheat you for a few pennies every way they can.

Look carefully to the medicine you are induced to buy, for much suffering, permanent injury, and even death has resulted from improper treatment, and from taking unskillfully prepared medicine.

The repairs upon the station house are still going on. The machinery for the electric light company is here.

Coal has taken an upward turn within the past few days. A republican mass meeting will occur at the capitol to-night.

Several colored lunatics will be sent to Mill-Edgewood to-morrow. The Hunter street macadamizing corps will begin work next week.

The board of police commissioners will meet in regular monthly session to-morrow night. Yesterday was the regular court day of Ordinary Calhoun. A number of orders were issued.

The two wings of the republican party will meet to-day at twelve in the capitol to harmonize.

The Church Disaster. Tom Collier, the negro man who was so badly injured by the falling in of the roof of the St. Philip's Sunday-school chapel Saturday evening last, died of the injuries he received Sunday morning.

Badly Hurt. Yesterday morning Bob Swan, a young boy who lives near Kirkwood, was standing on the pavement watching the driver at the corner of Alabama and Pryor street, when he stepped upon a plank which threw him into the excavation. The fall was about twelve feet and the boy's head was badly cut by a pile of brick upon which he fell.

Don't Want to Ante. The sheriff of Fayette county has been in Atlanta since Saturday last, trying to secure possession of Rigbins, the horse thief, and the horse which he rode to Atlanta. There was a reward of $150 offered for the horse and thief, but for some reason the sheriff wants to pay only $100. This Captain Crin declines to take, and expresses a determination to prosecute Rigbins for horse stealing in that county, rather than accept a less sum than that to which he is entitled.

City Court. The September term of the city court convened yesterday, his honor Richard H. Clark, judge presiding. The jury were organized and cases set for this week. The following cases were tried: State vs. John Rigdale, assault and battery; verdict guilty; sentence $500. State vs. E. E. Campbell, carrying concealed weapons; plea guilty; sentence $50 or two months in jail. State vs. John Ellison, carrying concealed weapons; verdict guilty; sentence $50 or three months. State vs. Charles Logan, larceny from the house; verdict guilty; sentence $50 or three months.

Equity and Divorce Cases. The following equity cases have been filed in the superior court since the 1st: Winford Murphy vs. Hannah Murphy, Martha B. Chisolm vs. W. P. Chisolm, James Hall et al vs. J. H. Huff et al, James Tiller vs. Cornus C. Holbrook, James P. Holbrook and John M. Holbrook, R. G. Clayton et al vs. James Dennis, A. G. Rhodes vs. Temperance C. Howard, Sarah Ann and J. R. Harris et al, Freedman & Lovern vs. J. M. Holbrook, trustee. The following divorce cases have been filed: Catherine C. Kimball vs. Charles H. Kimball and A. B. Clark vs. Savannah Clark.

Speer's Injunction Case. The injunction prayed for by Emory Speer to prevent the publication of his correspondence relative to political matters in the daily will probably be heard at Guinness' superior court next week. The case did not come up on Saturday in Atlanta because Mr. Pope Barrow, counsel for the proprietors of the Banner-Watchman, who seek to publish the correspondence, telegraphed to Judge Erwin that counsel could not agree on Atlanta as a place to hear the case. The proprietors of the Banner-Watchman express a determination to try every possible expedient to enable them to make the correspondence public.

Who He Was. The man who was killed on the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia Saturday night last was found to be William Proctor, of this place. The jury of inquest, after a careful examination, returned the following verdict:

The undersigned, sworn as a coroner's jury to inquire into the cause of the death of William Proctor, now lying dead at the E. T. & G. railroad station, in Atlanta, after hearing the evidence and the statement of Dr. John M. Borine, who made the post mortem examination, and that the deceased was a resident of Harrison county, Ga., and that he was the day a passenger on the coming train of the E. T. & G. railroad; that he jumped from said train and fell in jumping and was run over by the cars, and killed, and that the opinion of the jury the said railroad company and its employees were without fault in the matter.

J. M. BORINE, M.D., County Physician. F. A. HILLMAN, Coroner.

FIFTY LIVING CHILDREN. Over Three Hundred Grand Children and Married.

Mr. Blasingame, a prominent merchant from Social Circle, reports a remarkable case of vitality, which he says is well known to the people of his county. Near Social Circle resides a colored man named Harry Lackey, who probably has more descendants than any living man. He has been in the county so long that his own testimony on this question is corroborated by his neighbors. Harry is 80 years old, hale and hearty, one of the most industrious and highly respected negroes in the county. The other day he took unto himself a third wife, Susan Phillips, aged 61. He already has fifty children whom he acknowledges and who call him by various terms of filial affection. Several of his children have died. In the presence of some gentlemen the other day he named over more than three hundred of his grandchildren and said there were others whom he could not then remember. One of his sons has thirty living children. Several of his sons count up more than a dozen children each. The old man is proud of his record and talks freely about it whenever questioned. He has always been an organized democrat, and is the only negro in his militia district who votes in the democratic primary elections. He says he don't think his work is finished yet and has no idea of suspending business soon.

ALABAMA STREET WORK. What it Cost and Who Pays for the Pavement Being Laid Down.

"Yes," said City Engineer Clayton to a Constitution representative yesterday, as they were standing on Alabama street watching the workmen put down the blocks, "that is the cost of the street in the south, and at the same time the cheapest."

"What did it cost?" asked the reporter. "Ten thousand five hundred and eighty-five dollars and seventy-one cents, but of that amount the city pays only two thousand six hundred and fifty-six dollars and seventy-one cents."

"Who pays the balance?" "The Atlanta Street Car company pays two thousand six hundred and fifteen dollars and forty-five cents and the property owners along the street pay five thousand three hundred and thirteen dollars and fifty cents."

"How long have you been doing the work?" "We have been engaged just three months, and have worked an average of twenty-seven men per day. We have used ninety-seven thousand stones at a cost of seven cents each. The first stone was laid by Mr. W. H. Venable, of the street commission, and the last will be laid by Mr. R. H. Knapp, the father of the street commission bill, to-morrow."

"How long is the street?" "It is nine hundred and twenty feet long and is forty feet wide and the assessment upon the property owners is three dollars and fifty cents per front foot."

"Who pays the most towards the streets?" "Governor Brown. He has 224 front feet and pays $75.60. Mr. John H. James comes next in the list and pays $43.37."

"When will you complete the work?" "Wednesday about noon and then Atlanta will have a street that will last twenty-five years."

ANNIE SEAY. The Girl Who Claims to Have Been Beaten by the Coloreds.

Yesterday when a Constitution reporter called at the Benevolent home to see if there was any news at that institution, he noticed in the hallway a young woman apparently about twenty years of age, with a good figure and of moderately prepossessing appearance, considering the fact that her eyes were badly "bugged up," and she bore other evidences of having been in a fight. Mrs. Haile, the matron of the home, told the reporter that the girl was Annie Seay, who was so badly beaten by Charles Colcord and his wife. The reporter told Mrs. Haile that she considered the girl a worthy character he would like to have an interview with her inasmuch as the man Colcord is now in jail and his wife is under bond, the former for assault with intent to murder, and the latter for assault and battery. Mrs. Haile stated that the girl had conducted herself properly since her admission to the home and had told an unvarying tale whenever questioned in regard to the Colcord case, which she had said she and Colcord and his wife. The girl was called into the reception room where she gave the reporter a history of her life in substance as follows:

"I am twenty-one years of age and was born and raised in Augusta. My father is William Seay, a carpenter, who, with my mother lives in Augusta. My father has five children. Sometime before I came to Atlanta we were all taken sick and on the advice of our physician went to South Carolina where we remained a short time. I did not then know the Colords. When we returned to Augusta we rented a portion of a house occupied by the Colords and that was the way in which I came to know them—about four months ago. Mr. Colcord and his wife determined to come to Atlanta, and I came with them with the expectation of either keeping house for them or working in the cotton factory, and if I found everything as I hoped to find it in Atlanta, I was expected to write to my father and the family was to come here to live. About four weeks ago the Colords and I had some words. Mr. Colcord accused me of stealing twenty dollars and told me that he intended to beat me until I admitted it. Mrs. Colcord held me while Colcord beat me. At the same time Mrs. Colcord kicked me several times and my body was left black and blue. Most of the beating was done Tuesday week. It was all about the same thing. Wednesday week they sent me out after some beef and because the beef was not tender they beat me. Sunday they beat me and Tuesday night they beat me."

"How did you get those black eyes?" asked the reporter. "Mr. Colcord knocked me down because I did not get him a drink of water as quickly as he thought I ought to have done."

"Why didn't you leave the place?" "They watched me and would not let me get away. I started away Tuesday and they caught me and carried me back."

"What are you going to do?" "I am going to stay in Atlanta until the case is tried in court and then I am going home to Augusta."

"Mrs. Colcord says she beat you because she found you in her bed-room in too intimate relations with a negro man," remarked the reporter.

"That is not true, and she knows it. I have lived a virtuous life if I am poor."

The girl's body is black with bruises. Across her shoulders are marks of the blows, while her arms are covered with bruises. She says either was done with sticks and boards. She is in a badly used-up condition.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT. Judge Henry K. McCoy's First Day on the Bench of the Northern District.

The United States district court convened yesterday, the Honorable Henry K. McCoy presiding and presiding. McCoy, who is a native of this city, was born in the city of Lexington, Ky., and was educated at the University of Kentucky. He was admitted to the bar in 1878 and has since that time been engaged in the practice of law in this city. He was appointed to the bench by President Hayes in 1879 and has since that time been one of the most prominent judges in the city. He is a man of high character and ability, and his appointment to the bench was a great honor to the city.

It was Judge McCoy's first day on the bench as judge of the district court and much interest was manifested in his "debut." He ascended the stand like a veteran and Major Longstreet called order in court. After the usual preliminary business Judge McCoy made a few remarks upon what his course would be. He said that he would impose the mildest penalties prescribed by the law and would not make a trial of that plan as a means of bringing violators of the law to a recognition of their duty as citizens. If that plan failed of success he would try the reverse and would impose the heaviest penalties upon offenders against the law. He urged the members of the bar to be as brief as they could and to justice to their clients. That much time was wasted on immaterial matters. He instructed the marshal and his deputies to keep order in court prohibiting standing and not permitting conversation to the disturbance of the court. The hours of court were announced to be as follows: From 9 a. m. to 1 p. m. and from 3 p. m. to 5 p. m. He gave as his reason for fixing those hours the fact that the great body of our people were old-fashioned in their hours of dining, and the adoption of other hours would interfere with their comfort and not advance the public business.

The first case that went to the jury before Judge McCoy was that of Jeff Jackson, colored. The prisoner was convicted and sentenced to one month's imprisonment, $100 fine and costs. The cases before Judge McCoy yesterday were as follows: Joseph Brooks, illicit removing; plea guilty; sentence

THE KENTUCKY STATE FAIR. An Account of the Visit of the Georgia Delegation

A number of Georgians, comprising delegations from Atlanta, Athens, Griffin, Milledgeville and Rome, went to the Kentucky state fair at Lexington last week. Georgia was represented by about forty of her citizens, who went to see all the reports about the fair, the fine horses and fine stock that have gone out concerning Kentucky, and especially about Lexington, were true. They returned Sunday thoroughly satisfied that they had seen the finest fair that has been seen since the war. The display of fine horses, cattle, and all kinds of stock could not be excelled. The display of horses was certainly the finest that could be made, including horses worth from five hundred to twenty-five thousand dollars.

The display of cattle was equally as good, composed of herds of Jerseys, Shorthorns and Ayrshires, and the sheep and hogs the finest in America. The present of the fair association, Dr. Spurr, and General W. G. Gentry and other directors of the association, took special pains to show the Georgians over the grounds and entertained them handsomely while there. Mayor Johnson, of Lexington, Colonel Frank Waters, Colonel J. R. Graves, Captain Boyd and others of the city council were exceedingly kind, and showed the visitors not only all that was to be seen at the fair but carried the party around the city and to some of the farms near the city.

A visit to Ashland, the old home of Henry Clay, was one of the most interesting incidents of the trip. It is situated one mile and a half from Lexington, and in the midst of the finest blue grass region of Kentucky. The place is now leased by Mr. A. Smith McCain, a noted stock man of Kentucky, but has recently been purchased, and will soon go into possession of the daughter of Henry Clay, Jr., son of Mr. Clay who was killed in the Mexican war. The grove around by the house was set by Mr. Clay and his family. The party also visited the Lexington race course with Colonel Waters, one of the members. This is the course that has furnished some of the prettiest runners in the world.

The fair association does not permit racing on their track, and the Lexington race course have their entertainment during the next week, beginning on the 11th instant. Fine horses are already collecting from all parts of the country to take part in the race next week. The Georgians were politely shown through the establishment of Mr. Murphy, superintendent of the race course, as he would go from stable to stable, he would give the pedigree of each horse and some interesting part about his record.

"This horse," said Mr. Murphy, opening the door of the stable that contained a bright bay stallion with a pedigree as long as your arm, "I consider one of the best horses in America. He has never made a race, but I have worked him a good deal, and he is full of fire. I'm going to try him next week."

"You have worked him to a buggy?" he quickly suggested a green Georgian.

"My God, no," said Murphy. "I would not put a collar on that horse for a thousand dollars. We mean by 'working him' that we have been preparing him for a race by running him on the track and by practicing him."

This part of Georgia had no more to say about a race horse during the fair.

The party were furnished with an elegant sleeper, and on the return trip called a formal meeting, with Mayor English, of Atlanta, in the chair, and Dr. Mark Johnston, of Milledgeville, as secretary, passed the following resolutions, submitted by Messrs. Collier, In-

A CHANCE FOR A GOOD INVESTMENT AT 48 MARJETTA STREET.

Do you know of any one to be married within 15 days? Have you a friend contemplating matrimony soon? If so, you can invest a few dollars to great advantage by taking out a certificate on that friend. Think of it! For $25 you can make $100; for $50, $200, and so on, within 30 days. It is the greatest speculation of the age. Thousands are availing themselves of the opportunity. Call up and examine plans. Will give you the address of hundreds who have been benefited recently. All information cheerfully given. Remember the place—at Groves General Agency, 48 Marjetta street. Select Concert To-Night—V. M. C. A.

A select concert will be given at the Young Men's Christian Association hall this evening, beginning at 8:15 o'clock, to which the public is cordially invited. Some of the best vocalists and instrumental performers in the city have been secured to assist, and one of the most enjoyable musical evenings of the season can be promised to the audience. The hall is corner of Walton and Forsyth streets.

It is not Councilman Payne who has withdrawn from the aldermanic race, but Mr. E. T. Payne, who has withdrawn from the race for council. Councilman Payne will stay in the race for alderman until the day of election.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of Tennessee live stock sales, to be found on the fifth page of this issue.

PERSONAL.

Major G. Gardner, of Montgomery, Ala., is at the Kimball.

Colonel P. F. Pescud, of Raleigh, N. C., was at the Kimball Sunday.

Dr. D. H. Howell and wife have returned from New Holland Springs.

Mrs. Bell Booth, of Tuscaloosa, Ala., is spending some time at the Kimball.

Mr. J. Chester and Captain Robert E. Park, of Macon, are registered at the Kimball.

Mr. Paul J. Collier, of the McIntosh house, Indian Spring, Ga., was at the Kimball yesterday.

Mrs. John V. Glover, of Orangeburg, S. C., is in the city visiting her brother, Mr. G. C. Kite, on Currier street.

Mr. John F. Ryan, accompanied by his sister, Miss Marie Ryan, left yesterday afternoon, via the Air-Line, for Georgetown, D. C., where Miss Marie returns to the Visitation academy for another year. It will be remembered that this was the young lady that carried off the gold medal for instrumental music last year, and those that had had the pleasure of hearing her while here during her vacation speak in the most glowing terms of her instrumental talents, and that she is the worthy representative of so old and eminent an institution.

THE VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

An expiration of Alderman Beermann's term of office, the south side of the railroad will have no immediate representative in the aldermanic board, as there are two of the ones holding over from the north side. Justice demands that Alderman Beermann's successor should be from the south side of Atlanta and they present the name of that old, tried public spirited citizen, Major John H. Measlin, as a suitable man to fill the place and one that will be supported by the whole people of Atlanta.

Orders for coal at July prices can be left at MF Amors's office, 14 Marjetta street, and will be promptly attended to. W. S. Wilson & Co., 187—Sept 2
